First Corinthians 13:1

“If I speak with tongues of mean and of angels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal”.

I have recently seen this verse applied to our current political field and to some of the candidates seeking our votes. Let us remember the intention was not to use scripture to compel the behavior of others. Rather it was written to be a guide in influencing our individual behavior. If we each take the time and thought to consider if our words are spoken in love and with thought and consideration of their effect on those being addressed we will become known as an individual who cares for others. By extension if most or all of us in this congregation do the same we will be known as a friendly, loving place where others will want to associate. Considering our actions and our words will reflect positively on the perception of our congregation by guests and by the community at large. Carl

Orphan Sunday

If you sponsor a child through Christian Relief Fund or any other organization, please bring a photo of your child next Sunday. We will emphasize the work of CRF and Mountain States Children's Home next week.

Randy Schow, Executive Director of Mountain States Children's Home will be our guest speaker in the adult Bible class and worship on Sunday, November 13.

Trunk or Treat

Thank you to everyone who decorated a car, donated candy or participated in some other way in our Trunk or Treat last Sunday. About 200 people from our community came to enjoy the afternoon with us. We heard from several parents that they were thankful that we hosted the event.
