LOVE

There are many places in the Bible that refer to various aspects of love, particularly as it relates to Christian living. Today I want to call attention to some of these. In John 13-34&35: "A new command I give you, Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this all men will know you are my disciples, if you love one another." This statement in John refers to the disciples of Jesus and by extension to all Christians. In Mark 12:31 this is extended by Jesus when he says "Love your neighbor as yourself."

In the 5th Chapter of Matthew as Jesus is giving what we have titled the Sermon on the Mount He is much more explicit in extending our obligation to show love. In verse 44 & 45 "but I tell you Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you that you may be sons of your Father in heaven."

Just a few weeks ago, we worked together to pack 152 Shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child. For boxes that were a little "light" in items, we were able to purchase additional items to fill them up and this week our Operation Christmas Child team delivered the boxes to the collection center in Eugene. These boxes will be sent all over the world to help children in many countries facing poverty, war, natural disasters and more. Thank you all for putting a smile on so many little faces.

CRF

With programs in more than 20 countries worldwide, Christian Relief Fund is on a mission to help children living in poverty grow intellectually, physically, spiritually and socially. Our child sponsors are matched one-to-one with orphans and vulnerable children. Because of our sponsors' emotional, spiritual and financial support, our children can escape the cycle of poverty and make change in their communities. Information is available in the foyer about how to sponsor a child.
