Marking the Season

Genesis 1:14-16

And God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them serve as signs to mark seasons and days and years, and let them be lights in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth." And it was so.

December heralds not only the last month of 2016, it is also the busiest time of the year. It is a season of concerts, ballets, buying and selling, family meals, and church gatherings. Oddly enough, along with the joy of the season comes a rush of anxiety as time flees by. It can feel like a countdown clock is running pushing us faster and faster. It can be overwhelming.

December is a time to consider wisely the busyness of your day. Precious time in solitude, or away from crowds and noises, can have a calming effect on your soul. Don't neglect daily prayer and Bible study. It's okay not to do everything that's offered to you. Find joy in the events that you do and make every effort to keep the peace no matter where you are.

Consider also how you can be light in this season. Simple gestures like a compliment, unexpected generosity, or a smile rather than a frown do wonders for bringing light to someone's day. Jesus told us to "...let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven." Mt. 5:16
May God bless you as you go and as you do in the days ahead.

Secret Sisters: If you are planning to give your secret sister a Christmas gift, please bring it to a Sunday morning worship service during the month of December. DO NOT REVEAL WHO YOU ARE.

Our reveal will occur in January at a card shower (no gifts please). At the card shower we will reveal who we had as our secret sister. We will also bring desserts and coffee/tea to share at the reveal. We will have Godly fellowship and delicious desserts. Please bring your recipes to share.
The date and time of the reveal will be announced later.

Remember it's not the size or cost of the gift that's important, it's that we have each other in our hearts, praying constantly for one another in God's love. Sharon Gregory & Jeanie May
