How is your life?

The other Wednesday evening while I was sitting in the Fellowship Hall waiting for Bible Study class to begin, Lynn Staley came by and asked me, "How's your life?" I thought for a few seconds, and said "FULL!" I don't remember her reply, however it probably wasn't quite the answer she was expecting. It was a good question!! Years ago we had a Christian Brother in the congregation, and when he greeted you with a hand shake, he'd also ask the question: "How's your Soul today"? Another good question! Also, a few years back in a morning Bible Study class, our teacher Jim McCann, drew on the chalk board a circle representing our life. He divided the circle into segments, and suggested we fill it in with ideas that would make our life complete (Full). One segment was: what about our Spiritual Life; a very important part of life.

I think a reason there is so much unrest today, is that so many lives are not being Spiritually filled, or are being completely neglected. The Spirit living in us is the most important part of our life! Yet so much of our population today seems to be neglecting that fulfillment. So, when I said to Lynn, "It's full", I'm sure I was thinking about being busy in life. Fortunately my life has always been full; as a young boy, as a young working man, raising a family, and now being retired my life is still full! I can't say my life has always been Spiritually Full, however, I am working on that. This is a daily task.

So, when someone asks you: "How's your life; or How's your Soul today?" Think about it. Only you know how's your life and your Soul! --Roy
