Business Meeting Today

After the close of services today we will have our winter business meeting. After a short period to welcome our guests, please return to the auditorium For the BRIEF meeting. We are aware there is an athletic contest this afternoon some of you may wish to watch and hurry home for. Also we want to avoid the tendency to have a 30 minute Business meeting neatly rolled into two and one half hours. As a result we will be strictly adhering to the agenda you have had available in the bulletins since before the cutoff date for additional items of January 21. Please attend the meeting as you are both wanted and needed.
