8 Things Your Church Secretary Wants You to Know

Last year I ran across this list by Cyndee Ownbey for Women's Ministry Toolbox. We are blessed with a great church secretary, but it can be easy to forget the office is Denise's daily workplace. Consider these ideas. - Brian

1. While I love to hear from you, please know if I seem short or hurried, it's not personal—I just have a lot to accomplish today or may be in the middle of something for someone else.
2. All of the sweet notes and words of encouragement you send are greatly appreciated. If I don't reply, or if I just say a quick "Thank You", it's because I am humbled by your sentiments and the most gracious response seems to be just to accept the words and thank God for you.
3. At office closing time I am usually ready to go home and may have outside things to do right after work. Please don't arrive five minutes before the office closes with something you need right away as that usually means I will now have to stay late to complete it for you.
4. If you have an issue with a staff or church member, it would be better to speak with the person or Leadership. It can be awkward for me to be in the position of hearing things about others I know or work with, that are outside of my control.
5. The church office is a busy place. I am glad to spend time helping you with ministry needs. If you stop by to visit, though, please remember that I probably have a full slate of work to complete and I don't always have time to visit during the day. I will probably have to stay after hours to complete my work if we've visited for a more than a few minutes.
6. Sometimes moms who are ministry leaders need to meet at the office, in the conference room, etc., and we're glad to have you here. If you bring your children with you, please be sure that they stay with you and you are attentive to what they are doing while at the office.
7. It's my job to be sure that paperwork and guidelines are followed as they should be. Please be gracious if you disagree with a policy—I'm just following the procedures that the church body or staff has put in place.
8. If you sign out a key or other item for your event, please return it promptly. It can be awkward and time consuming for me to have to keep asking you to return the item, and someone else may be waiting for a key or whatever it is that you have signed out.

Welcome!

If you are a guest today, we are glad you're here. If you have children, there are a couple ways we can serve you. There is an attended nursery available during the entire service in room 1. During the sermon, Children's Bible Hour for ages 3 through 3rd grade meets in room 6. These rooms are on the west hallway. Thank you for joining us today! We hope you are blessed by your visit.

CHRISTMAS FOOD BOXES

Items needed this week: Turkeys, Frozen Pumpkin Pies, Instant Potatoes.

This year we will be offering Christmas food boxes first to church members then to those in the community due to budget constraints.

NEW COPIER

We recently had a new copier installed in the church office and will be changing how copies are handled. The old black and white copier has been moved to the teacher workroom. Any teachers needing to make black and white copies for church use may do so in the teacher workroom at their own convenience. Anyone needing color copies for church use should contact the church office during the week. You may leave items to be copied in the box outside the church office, drop them by during office hours or email digital items. Only church office computers will be connected for printing to the new copier.

CAMPUS MINISTRY GROUP

There will be a group of five people from the Raiders for Christ (a church of Christ campus ministry at Middle Tennessee State University) visiting Eugene December 14 - 21. They will be scouting the area and considering the possibility of starting a campus ministry at the University of Oregon. The group will be staying at our church building while they are in Eugene. If you are interested in hearing more about their campus ministry ideas or would like to host their group for a meal in your home, please contact the church office.

SECRET SISTERS

It's time to reveal your 2017 Secret Sister. We'll meet in the Fellowship Room this Saturday at 2:00 p.m. for pie and coffee. Don't bring a thing, except your Christmas gift for your Secret Sister. Let's get together and enjoy the Christian fellowship. Questions: Talk with Jeanie or Sharon.

CHRISTMAS CAROLING

December 17 at 2:00 p.m.    Soup, hot coco and cookies
after at the building.
