Discipline

Reading in the 12th chapter of Hebrews, the discipline of God caught my eye. It seems today's society thinks of discipline as something that is not necessary. When we read in chapter 12, verses 5-7, we read of God's discipline which says, "My son, do not despise the chastening of the Lord nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him; For whom the Lord loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives." I believe the key here is that God loves us and does so to make us the fruit of righteousness.

I can remember to this day, and maybe even still feel a little bit of pain, the one time my Dad spanked my sister and me. We were told not to do something, and behind his back, we did it anyway. It was a spanking on our bottoms so it really didn't hurt us physically, but it reminded us to obey our parents! Isn't that what God does? He reminds us when we do wrong there are consequences of disobedience. We also know that when we do wrong, and ask God to forgive us—that because He is a loving God—He does forgive us. Isn't that true when we discipline our children. Often times they'll come and say, "I'm sorry", and we too forgive them. Why? Because we love them, and want them to do what's right and bear fruit of righteousness.

SCRIPTURE READING: James 4:11-17

<sup>11</sup> Brothers and sisters, do not slander one another. Anyone who speaks against a brother or sister or judges them speaks against the law and judges it. When you judge the law, you are not keeping it, but sitting in judgment on it. <sup>12</sup> There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the one who is able to save and destroy. But you—who are you to judge your neighbor? <sup>13</sup> Now listen, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money." <sup>14</sup> Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. <sup>15</sup> Instead, you ought to say, "If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that." <sup>16</sup> As it is, you boast in your arrogant schemes. All such boasting is evil. <sup>17</sup> If anyone, then, knows the good they ought to do and doesn't do it, it is sin for them.

I'm not sure what your Wednesday nights look like. If you're like most of us, our schedules are getting busier and busier. The thought of getting out on a Wednesday evening might sound more tiring than anything. But if you haven't been a part of our Wednesday evening Bible study lately, you're missing out. We've been navigating through a video series by Randy Harris about the Sermon on the Mount, and it has been helpful to reopen our eyes to the familiar teachings. Each week, the video spends about 15 minutes introducing our study, and we spend some time discussing an element of the sermon.

So far, I've taken a few big things away from the study. First, God's blessings in the beatitudes might not sound positive in the world's eyes, but clearly God is able to bless even in difficult circumstances. We are truly blessed. Second, the Christian life is a life of action, not belief alone. We are called to be "salt and light". Third, God makes it clear through His law that He wants a relationship with us, and He cares about how we treat each other. If you are able, come look at the sermon with us. And if you are not, you might like to pick up the book, *Living Jesus* by Randy Harris, and hear the Sermon on the Mount again through another point of view.
