GROWING, WORKING, SHARING...TOGETHER

First Corinthians 13 Verse 1

“If I speak with tongues of men and of angels , but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal”

I have recently seen this verse applied to our current political field and to some of the candidates seeking our votes. Let us remember the intention was not to use scripture to compel the behavior of others. Rather it was written to be a guide in influencing our individual behavior. If we each take the time and thought to consider if our words are spoken in love and with thought and consideration of their effect on those being addressed we will become known as an individual who cares for others. By extension if most or all of us in this congregation do the same we will be known as a friendly, loving place where others will want to associate.

Considering our actions and our words will reflect positively on the perception of our congregation by guests and by the community at large.

SCRIPTURE READING: James 5:7-9

<sup>7</sup> Be patient, then, brothers and sisters, until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer waits for the land to yield its valuable crop, patiently waiting for the autumn and spring rains. <sup>8</sup> You too, be patient and stand firm, because the Lord's coming is near. <sup>9</sup> Don't grumble against one another, brothers and sisters, or you will be judged. The Judge is standing at the door!

Last week in our Wednesday night Bible study, we talked about the beginning of Matthew 6. Jesus challenges us in that section to make sure that our giving, praying and fasting is done for God rather than to be seen by men. In this case, He suggests doing those things in secret. Christians today may be keeping that part of the command a little too well.

We get uncomfortable sometimes talking about how much we give, how often we pray and whether we fast. We've gone past the idea of secret and made those things so personal that we might be afraid to discuss them at all. For most of us, we will find one of our weakest spiritual discipline among those three. It's worth noting, though, how Jesus introduces each of those topics: "When you give..." "When you pray..." "When you fast..." They are not "ifs," they are "whens." So the question Jesus is answering is how we should do these things. That might make us ask the question, "Are we doing these things at all?" If not, let's get to work on making these disciplines a regular part of our lives, and let's do them to the glory of God.
