

EUGENE CHURCH OF CHRIST

GROWING, WORKING, SHARING...TOGETHER

SUMMERTIME

Quickly comes the summer. While it's not officially here, summer is upon us. Sunshine and blue sky greet the morning, allergies are in full bloom, brilliant hues top the verdant stems of flowers dancing in the breeze. It used to be that summer was for nurturing crops, eliminating pesky weeds, watering crops the right amount, not too much. It can be tempting to slack off in the heat of the season. After all, it has been a busy winter and spring.

Nonetheless, I would encourage you to balance time off with the need we all have to be nurtured in the Word. Feed yourself in the church community wherever you are. Let the sights and time away from home energize you for a better, more fruitful service in the months to come. Take time to meditate, consider Jesus, practice the faith that has lifted you out of difficulties in the past and pray. Summer can be a time of vigorous renewal if you let it.

As I look ahead, the VBS Olympion program happens during the week of June 20th. Be sure to sign up your children to participate. July includes a congregational meeting on the 17th and rolls into Round Lake Christian Camp at the end of the month. August reflects the final foray into vacations and travel before the September school year starts up again. Over the summer, be nurtured, pull out the weeds, and get enough spiritual water to stay strong. —Mike

SCRIPTURE READING: Luke 10:25-29

²⁵ On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"
²⁶ "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?"
²⁷ He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'" ²⁸ "You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."
²⁹ But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

Currently our Wednesday night Bible study has been working through 1 & 2 Thessalonians. These letters from Paul are full of encouragement and ideas about how to better be the church and live the Christian life. In many modern translations, the books are broken down into paragraph form with subheadings separating topics. 1 Thessalonians ends with the section that the NIV labels, “Final Instructions.” It always causes me to wonder what thoughts I might share with someone that I might not see or communicate with for a while.

Paul's final instructions are clearly Spirit-led and helpful. First, acknowledge those who work hard. We all know people with incredible work ethic. Let them know their work is appreciated. Second, hold accountable those who are idle or disruptive. In teams, organizations and even churches, there can be those who want everything done their way and struggle with the concepts of teamwork and leadership. That cannot be ignored. Third, don't worry about revenge. It takes the focus away from what we should be doing. Fourth, rejoice! Regardless of the circumstances, be a joyful person. Fifth, pray, pray and pray some more. Stay in communication with our God. And last, be thankful. We serve a God that loves us immensely. When we do these things, we continue growing, working, sharing...TOGETHER. — Brian
