

EUGENE CHURCH OF CHRIST

GROWING, WORKING, SHARING...TOGETHER

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Next Sunday, on the 17th, we will be having a Congregational Meeting to inform everyone on just what's taking place in the congregation, and to learn about some things coming up.

Is it important to attend? I hope you feel that it is!

We'll be looking at the finances, and informing the congregation how we are doing on our 2016 budget.

We'll be reviewing some wording in the By-Laws, and to be able to make any changes in wording it takes a vote of approval by the congregation. There are copies of the By-Laws in the office for you to review, and to be informed of what's being changed. That is important!!

We'll be updating you where we are at with Verizon.

We're fortunate to have a member of the congregation, Dan Herold, who has worked with homeland security in the military, so he will be giving some expert advice to us on what to do in a case of an emergence such as fire, earthquake, and a terrorist attack on the congregation.

Of course there will be time for suggestions, so be thinking of any you may have.

There will be a Noon Potluck after morning services; then at 2 o'clock the Congregation's Meeting will follow the Potluck. Please plan to attend both the Potluck, and the following Congregational Meeting next Sunday, July 17th.

SCRIPTURE READING: Matthew 21:28-30

<sup>28</sup> "What do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work today in the vineyard.'

<sup>29</sup> "'I will not,' he answered, but later he changed his mind and went.

<sup>30</sup> "Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing. He answered, 'I will, sir,' but he did not go.

Like many Americans, I thought emails would be the story that would fill my week. Missing emails, the FBI, a presidential candidate – it sounded like the making of a great political thriller. Then in the middle of the week, everything took a turn. In the last few days, my social media news feeds have been a combination of mostly #blacklivesmatter, #policeivesmatter and #alllivesmatter. I have good friends and people I respect posting all three of these, and I truly value each of their points of view. As a Christian and a minister, I have really struggled with what to do with all of this. How does God want me to respond?

So to those who believe #blacklivesmatter, #policeivesmatter or #alllivesmatter, I respond the same way I often do when my kids ask questions with multiple true options: YES. All of these are true, and they do not have to be mutually exclusive. We are all made in the image of God, and we should have respect for the lives of others. It is long past time for us to do a better job trying to understand the lives in each of these groups and to acknowledge that most of us have not walked in their shoes. Most of all, it's time as Christians to wholeheartedly follow those commands to love God and love our neighbors. Lives were lost this week. Families are hurting. Our nation needs healing. That begins with each of us. In the words of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., "Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that." Maybe we should add one more to that list: #lovematters
