Carol Eastridge

I was born in Coulee City, Washington in May 1939. In 1945 my family moved to Yoncalla, Oregon. We attended the Assembly of God Church faithfully.

My dad was a farmer and Bob worked for him during the summer of 1952. He was 16 and I was 13. Bob went back to Arizona after the summer harvest and as time went by, he came back to see his sisters again. Bob and I met again in Cottage Grove before he returned to Arizona then we corresponded by mail. He again in 1957 returned to Oregon with marriage on his mind.

I graduated in 1957 from High School and we were married June 1st, 1957. Bob went in the Air Force in 1958 and by 1964 we had 3 children. It was at that time, I accepted Jesus and was baptized at the Chandler, Arizona Church of Christ. Bob's folks always went to the Church of Christ faithfully. I always believed in God but was taught a little different from the Church of Christ teaching of the Bible. Bob and his folks had an influence on my changing and accepting Jesus and being baptized. I am very pleased that it happened this way.
