Welcome!

If you are a guest today, we are glad you're here. If you have children, there are a couple ways we can serve you. There is an attended nursery available during the entire service in room 1 for birth to 2 years old. During the sermon, Children's Bible Hour for ages 3 through 10 meets in room 6. These rooms are on the west hallway. Thank you for joining us today! We hope you are blessed by your visit.

Jeanie May

When I was five-years-old, my family moved from the Panhandle of Oklahoma to El Dorado, KS. The church there was quite reserved in comparison to the Oklahoma church that my parents attended in Laverne, OK, so they were so pleased when a family from Texas moved there to become the minister, Darryl Shaw. He and his wife Lois were so friendly that it felt like home for our parents. They shared meals and visited in each other's homes and really got acquainted with this family.

My Bible class was taught by an elder who believed in the "fire and brimstone" approach. He really made us think about Jesus and our souls, and although I was afraid at times, I learned so much Bible from this man. At age 12, I was baptized by Darryl. I knew what I was doing, but I was nervous about going in front of the congregation to confess that Jesus was my Savior. I was also terribly excited about becoming a Christian. I was filled with Joy. My heart beat wildly in my chest when I walked down that aisle. And, today, I get that same feeling when I see a baptism.

Throughout my life, I've had happiness and sadness, ups and downs, but Jesus, my Savior, has always been by my side. I continue to do my best as a Christian, remembering how starting my Christian walk was just the beginning. I've been faithful to Jesus and when I mess up, I know through Grace, I'm saved. It's that assurance of salvation that keeps me going even in the worst of times.

Baptism? It's just the beginning! Walking with Jesus takes a life-long commitment.

Matt and Sarah Astbury:

Hello! We are Matt and Sarah Astbury. Matt is 36 years old and Sarah is 34 years old. Matt works as a truck driver for Walsh Trucking and Sarah works as a caregiver at Bayberry Commons. We have lived in the Lane County area for 13-14 years. We have been at Eugene Church of Christ for 11 years. We love the family feel of church here. Matt enjoys being a gearhead and working on cars.

Sarah stays busy with work but would like to pick up scrapbooking again. Matt's favorite bible verse is Genesis 27:3. We would appreciate prayers for strength in raising our children.
