Member Highlight

Joshua Duffield and Jamee Duffield are both 25 years old. Joshua is a security guard and Jamee is a Custodian I. Joshua has been in the Eugene/Springfield area for 7 years. Jamee as a child was here for 7 years and as an adult another 7 years.

Joshua has attended the ECOC for 6 years. Jamee as a child had attended for 7 years and as an adult another 7 years. Joshua's interests and hobbies include Dungeons & Dragons as well as Medieval History.

Jamee's interests and hobbies include Disney, wood burning art and puzzles. Fun fact about Joshua is he can read, write and speak in Russian; he is also the game master for D&D. Fun fact about Jamee is she is related to 3 presidents and a famous native american. Joshua's favorite story in the Bible can be found in 2nd Chronicles, Sennacherib's invasion of Judah. He likes this story because it is an example of biblical and archaeological history lining up. Jamee likes the story and character of Job because although he went through many trials he still stood with God.

Candidate evaluation

In order to get feedback from the congregation on the ministers trying out, we are offering two ways to evaluate them.

First, and the preferred way, on Monday after each visit an email will be sent out with a link to the survey. This can be done with a computer or via internet by phone. Data from that survey will be automatically compiled and readily available. The survey will be open from Monday through Saturday of the week after the evaluation weekend.

Second, we will have paper forms to hand out on the Sunday the candidate is preaching. Those forms will have to be entered into the online database by hand. Paper surveys will be accepted until Saturday of the week after each evaluation weekend but the data will not be available until later.

Please take the time to prayerfully and thoughtfully consider each of the three men. Your input will be helpful for the search committee.

Food Train is set up to take Leslie Ann & Barbara Dixon food every Tuesday.
