Getting to know you

We are both children of the late 1930's meaning we are now past 80. Carl was born and raised in Winslow, Arizona while Lois was born in Ellensburg, Washington.

She was a PK and spent growing up time there as well as Sandpoint Idaho, Big Sandy Montana then Sandpoint again, and Ashland, Oregon, where she met and married

Carl. At the time she was teaching school and Carl worked for the railroad. Church was important in each of their lives. Carl was baptized November 13, 1949.

Lois, not having the advantage of an inscribed New Testament remembers being baptized at church family camp in Montana in her early teens. After one year of marriage Carl was promoted to Locomotive Engineer for Southern Pacific RR which necessitated they move to Eugene. For Carl it was a move back as he first moved here in 1956. For Lois it was a new location. We became active in the 10th & Washington congregation in the late

1960's, moving to this location when the congregation moved. Lois worked as a Sunday school teacher and helped with VBS, food preparation for special and funeral dinners, and many other activities. Carl has served as a Deacon and as an Elder. My hobbies are hunting, fishing, archeology, and primitive skills. Also teaching Hunter Education (Lois taught with me as a team for 38 years). One of my favorite Bible Passages is Psalm One. The positive is something I would aspire to achieve.
