In Prayer We Present our Thoughts to God

To pray, I think, does not mean to think about God in contrast to thinking about other things, nor does it mean spending time with God instead of spending time with other people. As soon as we begin to divide our thoughts into thoughts about God and thoughts about other things, like people and events, we separate God from our daily life. At that point God is allocated to a pious little niche in some corner of our lives where we only think pious thoughts and experience pious feelings. Although it is important and even indispensable for our spiritual lives to set apart time for God and God alone, our prayer can only become unceasing [prayer] when all our thoughts—beautiful or ugly, high or low, proud or shameful, sorrowful or joyful—can be thought in the presence of the One who dwells in us and surrounds us. By trying to do this, our unceasing thinking is converted into unceasing prayer, moving us from a self-centered monologue to a God-centered dialogue. To do this we want to try to convert our thoughts into conversation. The main question, therefore, is not so much what we think, but to whom we present our thoughts.

Member Highlight

I'm Randey Rollins. I am 37 years old and work as a Technical Support Engineer. I've been married to Nettie for 17 years and we have 3 children. I've lived in Eugene/Springfield area for 37 years and have attended at Eugene Church of Christ for 15+ years. My favorite thing about our church is the people. I am involved in the technology committee at church. My hobbies include computers, computer games, board games, etc. Microsoft Excel is my favorite video game. I dig the New Testament.

It's legit. Please pray for me to have patience.

Dearest Church family,

What a blessing it is to call you family. Throughout the last couple of weeks, my entire family has felt the prayers all of you have poured over us. Thank you for the love, and the support you have showed us. God is good. Thank you for the cards, flowers and food for my family. To those who fed us every night for a week, thank you so much. Keep us in your prayers if you will, God is not done showing us His miracles.

Love the Rollins and Gregory family.

Children's Prayer Warriors

We ask for YOUR peace to cover them. We ask for laughter and joy to fill their day. We pray that YOU would give them boldness and courage to face the challenges set before them, with the confidence and calmness that can only come from YOUR Holy Spirit.

THE NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

To be observed at the Eugene Church of Christ, Wed. evening, May 1st

"I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that his justice cannot sleep forever."-- Thomas Jefferson

This week please pray for our nation.

Pray that our nation would be turned upside down and changed through the preaching of the gospel.

"This is the confidence we have in approaching God:

that if we ask anything according to His will.

<sup>15</sup>And if we know that he hears us-whatever we ask; we know that we have what we asked of him.

He hears us." I John 5:14, 15

We rejoice with the Astbury family on the baptism of Casey last Sunday.

Saturday at 5:00 p.m.
Sole Hope Shoe Cutting Party with Game night to follow.
