2 Corinthians 2:5-11

⁵ If anyone has caused grief, he has not so much grieved me as he has grieved all of you to some extent—not to put it too severely. ⁶ The punishment inflicted on him by the majority is sufficient. ⁷ Now instead, you ought to forgive and comfort him, so that he will not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. ⁸ I urge you, therefore, to reaffirm your love for him.

⁹ Another reason I wrote you was to see if you would stand the test and be obedient in everything. ¹⁰ Anyone you forgive, I also forgive. And what I have forgiven—if there was anything to forgive—I have forgiven in the sight of Christ for your sake, ¹¹ in order that Satan might not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his schemes.

Welcome to the Eugene Church of Christ—we are glad you are here today to worship our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If you have special needs, please let us know how members of this congregation can pray for you and/or serve you this week.

Sunday Challenge: Will you let God's word reshape your thoughts, actions and words today? Romans 12:6-21

Dear Lord, Fill our irritable hearts with the love that you freely give so that love may be the first and last of our thoughts in all things. Help us to see people through your perfect lens of immeasurable worth and value; help us to love both our friends and enemies well with our thoughts, actions and words. May we never lose sight of your eternal love or Jesus' atoning work on the cross for our undeserved redemption. Let each of us be an actual working beacon reflecting your perfect brilliance in this broken world so the lost sheep who don't know you or who don't fully rely on you can find their way home to true joy and peace. Lord, we turn to you and your amazing love as our guide. In Jesus' powerful and precious name, Amen.
